From the Pastor . . .

Dear RVCC Family and Friends,

Here is a riddle for you---Who in our congregation is learning a second language? The short answer: All of you are learning a second language right now and have been for years. Can you guess?

Learning a language can be challenging. Our German friends Swen and Roland came to visit us several years ago. It was long before cell phones were part of our daily lives. Their estimated time of arrival was lunchtime; unfortunately, it took them two hours longer to make it to our home. Swen had been practicing his English skills and proudly announced: "We were stuck in a traffic jelly."

So, you might be curious as to what language we are learning at this time. Jesus is always challenging us with stories that appear so simple on the surface. Jesus asked many questions making us think very carefully about how to answer them.

Trey Hall wrote in the Christian Century magazine about "The gospel as a second language"

We all have something to add about our experiences of how the gospel is lived out in our lifetime. Most of us have heard the gospel stories about The Good Samaritan as well as Mary and Martha. Each of those stories evoking your different viewpoints of what it means to be a Good Samaritan as well as different times in your life when you have been a "Mary" or a "Martha".

Trey Hall writes: "The church includes first-and second language speakers, with a myriad of gorgeous accents. Let's practice together, all testifying to what it's like to encounter God."

On a lighter note, when you receive this newsletter, I will be on Cape Cod visiting with Scott's family and practicing "Sabbath" which is a great church word too.

May you experience 'Summer Sabbath' moments and I look forward to hearing your interpretation of what Sabbath means to you.

Summer Blessings,

Rev. Petra Smyth

Moderator Musings

Well, we are in the midst of the harvest season. Folks have canned pickles, tomato sauce, green beans and many other items. You've probably had some fresh grown corn on the cob. Earlier in the year you probably picked some berries and ate what you could and made some jams and jellies for the upcoming winter season.

It certainly has been a bountiful growing season aided by the June warmth and the July rains. At our house we have had a fine crop of tomatoes and potatoes from our container gardens. And each week we have received additional vegetables from a farm share.

Soon, we will pick fresh apples and enjoy the bounty of pies, crisps, apple sauce and just good ole apples to eat by hand. And fall will see the bounty of pumpkins and winter squash soon arrive.

There are many local farm markets and road side stands to obtain the freshest that mother earth has to offer. And there are many folks out there who have spent many hours out in all kinds of weather to bring us these pleasantries. Let's say our blessings for all those who have helped us benefit not only our food, but also our love for this time of year

And slowly, the days length has diminished and soon we will be celebrating a harvest moon. The harvest moon is one of the harbingers of the coming of autumn. This moon tends to give off extra light as the days become shorter and the nights longer. This moon is one of the biggest and brightest based on the tilt of the earth at this time of year. In days of yore, farmers would use the moonlight as extra time to help with the harvest.

Eventually, we will look forward to the spring time again, so we can begin the process of getting to that ultimate harvest again. It is a perpetual cycle of growth and renewal that comes at just the right time to will away the doldrums of winter.

But let's not wish the harvest away just yet. Take the time to enjoy the changing of the season. Grab those most recent treasures from the garden, pick some apples, and prepare for the autumn to come once again. Yes, we have shorter days ahead, but to me some of the best times of the year are in September!!!

What about you?..... Are some of your favorite days, this time of the year?

Summary of Tuesday, July 27, 2021 Coordinating Council/Deacons Meeting

A joint meeting of coordinating council and deacons was called to order via zoom at 5:00 PM, on Tuesday, July 27, 2021 by Tom Wiley. Present were Tom, Rolf, Petra, Nancy, Brenda, Caryl, Deb, and Judy.

Nancy offered the opening prayer.

Tom reviewed the agenda and set an end time of 6:00 PM.

Treasurer's Report: Brenda reported no surprises in the financial report. American Funds are doing well, the gain in them has covered the withdrawal we had to take for cash flow purposes. Total income for the month of $8,808 was over budget by $2,100 for the month, and over by $8,351 year to date (includes gain of $5,728 in American Funds). Total expenses of $5,177 was under budget by $1,570 for the month, and by $6,750 year to date. Nancy made a motion, seconded by Caryl, and approved to accept treasurer's report subject to year end review.

Reports of the Coordinators:

Clerk: nothing to report.

Trustees: Rolf reported that the annual state inspection on the Parsonage is coming up shortly. He and Nate are doing a few things to prepare, but he doesn't expect any problems.

Missions: Caryl has not received any suggestions for new missions. We will do socks for homeless in Portland during the month of August.

Christian Education: nothing to report

Stewardship: Tom has spoken with Craig, he will be able to run the August Pot Roast Supper. Brenda is about to send out Stewardship letter and statements for second quarter of the year.

Deacons: Caryl reported that their schedule for August is all set.

Moderator: Reports from Tom will come later on the agenda.

Pastor: Petra reported that we can feel free to call Jona at the conference office if we have any questions or problems during her time away. Jona is prepared to help if people we have lined up for coverage are not available at the last minute. Petra also reported that Paul Nickerson is offering a workshop via zoom, on September 11, with follow up coaching on the topic of "Telling our Story and Sharing our Faith". Petra will send the info to us. Caryl suggested that we try to involve others from the congregation, not just council members and deacons.

Audio/Visual and Covid Discussion:

It was agreed that the wearing of masks while singing seems to be well accepted. It was agreed that we need microphones on each podium, or a wireless on each person, even if we are not taping. We still seem to have problems with sound quality. We could attach wireless microphone to a lavolier, or we also have a holder that attaches to ones head, which we could try. Rolf feels a lot of our sound problem is due to moving of head away from microphone. We need to continue to work on sound quality, especially if we are going to start taping again in September. The Maine conference UCC has contacts that we may try to confer with.

Old Business: Rolf updated us on handicap accessibility projects which are being partially funded by UCC through Strengthen the Church grant. Work on driveway will not be until September. We may need to go with a metal ramp, not wood, in the sanctuary. There was concern expressed about noise of metal. It will be a permanent, not temporary installation, so should not be too bad. Tom announced that we have found a new pianist, he thanked members of the search committee. His official start date will be in September, but we are proceeding with paperwork, in case we need him to fill in sooner. His name is Michael Bostock, a student at Waynefleete, and the Portland Conservatory of Music, and very active in a number of musical groups and ensembles in Portland area.

New Business: Brenda Olsen announced that the status of Raymond Arts Alliance has kind of fizzled during Covid. They will become a committee of the library. The financial agreement between the church and RAA will cease to exist, but they will continue to pay us to rent space for some events. There was discussion about whether we need to update our rental use document. We will need to look at fees for them.

The next meeting will be on September 14, at 5:00 PM via zoom. The meeting was adjourned at 6:15 PM.

Respectfully submitted,

Judith Munson, Clerk
